

Everyone has a beginning. Everyone has a start to their life. It doesn't matter where you're from or what you look like, everybody has a beginning.

Even in the start of time, the first day of creation. The bible says, "In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth" Genesis 1:1. So not just people but the world itself had a beginning. The very first people on earth, Adam and Eve, had a beginning.

It doesn't matter where your beginning is, whether a hospital room, your house, even in a car. We are made in the image and likeness of God. We are His creation and nothing we say or do will ever change his love for us.

The beginning that God gives us is probably the greatest gift of all. And with a beginning also comes a chance. A chance to live, a chance to be the hands and feet of God, and a chance to love Him.

Take a well-known person such as Abraham Lincoln. He was a baby once. In fact, Abraham Lincoln was born into a poor family who already had multiple children. His mother didn't have to give him a chance, but she did. She let him have that beginning when her family really couldn't afford it. And how God worked wonders out of it! That one chance is all God needs to make miracles. It is really such a blessing to be able to work in God's will and plan to bring Him glory!

Sometimes it doesn't feel like that one chance is a big deal. It's like trying to put together a thousand-piece puzzle and looking at one of the pieces. There are so many, it doesn't seem like just one piece makes a big difference. But when the puzzle is all put together and that one piece is missing, it makes a difference. You notice. The puzzle can't be completed without it. It's all about perspective. That one chance, that one beginning that we can give makes a greater impact than anyone will ever know. One decision can change everything.

God gave us that chance and the least we could do is do the same. And even if we feel like we don't have a purpose we can remember that we will always have a job to do here on earth. Living for Jesus.

Giving a chance to an infant will let them have a chance when they get older to love and know God themselves.

Everyone has a beginning. Everyone has a purpose.

Life is so precious!
