

Statement of Purpose

The Oregon Right to Life Education Foundation Oratory Contest strives to promote the ability of high school juniors and seniors to share their pro-life views with others. Although speaking ability is important, this contest also seeks to help teens organize and express pro-life views. We also strive to give the contestants an opportunity to meet other pro-life students.

2022 Contest Rules

1. High school juniors and seniors as of February 1 of the year of the national contest are eligible to compete. In the case of advanced students, non-traditional students, or homeschooled students, the school in which the student is enrolled must recognize the student as a junior or senior. If none of these apply, the year the student will enter college will be used to determine eligibility.
2. Students who have competed in their junior year may compete the following year as seniors. The speech must be entirely new content. A student will be ineligible to compete a second year if the student won first place in the national contest.
3. Contestants are to research, write, and present an original pro-life speech on abortion, infanticide, euthanasia, or stem cell research. The speech should address one of these topics directly.
4. The speech is to be 5-7 minutes in length. A contestant will be disqualified if the speech is times to be under 4 minutes or over 8 minutes in length. Judges are instructed to use their judgment regarding under or over-time limit speeches. It is at the judges' discretion how the 4-5 minute and the 7-8 minute speech will reflect in the score.
5. Appropriate gestures are allowed. Props are not allowed.
6. Speech content may not be significantly changed as contestant advances. Fine-tuning for minor corrections or to adjust time is allowed. A written copy of the contestant's speech must be forwarded to the state contest.
7. The contestant should use up-to-date factual information.
8. The style should be appropriate to the message of the speech. A dramatic presentation is not acceptable. A dramatic presentation is considered anything that is read or performed that has been previously written by another author; a short story, a poem, etc. Although quotes to support a position or statement are appropriate, they may not dominate the speech and should be appropriately cited. Dramatic presentations are also defined, for the purposes of this contest, to include acting as a thing or another person, such as acting out the life of an unborn baby. This rule is not to be interpreted to rule out the use of emotion.
9. The judges' backgrounds and qualifications differ, although all are pro-life, the speech should appeal to a broad audience.
10. No copyrighted speeches shall be used in the contest.

11. The contest may be videotaped or recorded. The recording will remain the property of the Oregon Right to Life Education Foundation.
12. Contestants may use notes.
13. The use of a podium is optional but it is possible that a podium will not be available.
14. Microphones may or may not be available. Contestants should be prepared to give their speeches with or without a microphone.
15. Depending on the number of contestants, and whether or not there is a tie during the contests, the Oregon Right to Life Education Foundation Oratory contest usually consists of one round.
16. Each round will have three judges and a timekeeper.
17. Speaking order for the first round will be determined before the contest by drawing.
18. The judges score the contestants in four areas; introduction, content, presentation, and conclusion. Contestants are given a score of 1-10 (10 being the best) in each area. The scores are added together (40 being perfect). The judges' scores are added together for the grand total. The grand total will determine the first-place winner.
19. The judges' decision will be final.
20. All effort is made for accuracy. In the event of a mistake, every effort will be made to correct it.
21. Ties will be handled by the Contest Director.
22. These rules apply to the Oregon Right to Life Education Foundation Contest. For rules that apply strictly to the National Right to Life Contest, go to <http://www.nrlc.org/students/oratorycontest/>
23. Any concerns or issues shall be dealt with by the Contest Director.
24. The decision of the Contest Director concerning the application of these rules to the contest will be final.
